Dear Sirs

Herewith, in my quality of chief editor of the Springer collection LOGIC, ARGUMENTATION AND REASONING, I certify that the book proposal entitled:

Teaching Logic: Programmes, Games and Philosophy
(edited by Víctor Aranda, Ludovica Conti and Elia Zardini)

has been formally accepted for publication within the aforementioned Springer book series, following peer review and editorial evaluation.

The volume is expected to make a significant contribution to the field by exploring innovative pedagogical approaches to logic through interdisciplinary frameworks, including philosophical, didactic, and game-theoretic perspectives.
